Dear Grandma, I will answer your letter right away. I am glad to hear from you. This letter is well and your grandpa is suffering with his legs. The nurse is about to let him been changing water for wash and he guess he is getting to hard. I would like to been at the spelling contest it is to bad Grandpa did not get any thing. I expect you will get next before you get. This can't please write again I am glad you are learning so fast. I wish you could "to school" right away but of course you need your help yours as ever your loving grandpa
